Rebuilding Britain

I already know:

- How to describe events from the past using dates when things happened.
- How to draw a timeline with different historical periods showing key historical events and the lives of significant people.
- A legacy is things that exist after someone dies or after a civilisation ends.
- Events that happened during World War Two.
- What life was like for British people during the Second World War.

Key Vocabulary:

British Empire	a group of countries rules over by the British monarch
colonies	a country or area that is under control by another country
Commonwealth	an international group of countries that share the same political ideas
National Debt	the total amount of money a countrys government has borrowed
National Health Service (NHS)	government-funded medical and health care services that everyone living in Britain can access for free
Welfare State	a system where the government protects those in financial or social need.
nationalisation	businesses that were run privately, being taken oven and ran by the government
Generation Windrush	the people who arrived in Britain from the Caribbean

I will learn:

- what life was like for British people after the Second World War.
- to research to find similarities and differences between two periods of British history.
- about the creation of the NHS.
- about the legacy of the Windrush generation.
